

Volunteers for Faith in the Community: Work on the Pantry has been going on in earnest throughout June, and all signs are that it will be ready for handover by the end of July. The Pantry will be open Mondays to Fridays from 1000-1500, and will be staffed by volunteers, under a manager. There are many different types of volunteer work involved, and people are free to choose what they would like to do, and what day or days they would like to volunteer. If you would like to volunteer, please pick up a Volunteer Application Form from the back of church, or ask Fr Alf to drop one through your letter box. As you can see by the proposed date for opening, there is a little note of urgency in the appeal, so I would be very grateful for a speedy response if you are able to help. Thank you.

Weekday Mass: As you'll see from the figures, quite a lot of parishioners have managed to get to one of the daily Just to let you know that, in spite of the recommended number of 30, we have in fact had spare room at every Mass, because lots of people come in their same household groups, thereby freeing up places that would have been taken had they come alone. So, please, don't feel that you can't come. There will always be room. Please feel free to ring if you prefer. Maria ~ 07732278730

NEW NOTICES

Bonus Ball: Winner for 25th July was Annie McKeon with No 15.

Thankyou from Amy Delroy and family: I would like to thank Fr Alf and all the parishioners who very kindly said prayers and sent best wishes for my heart surgery. I am now on the road to recovery. Thank you. Amy

Requiem Masses: We now have permission to include the Mass at funerals, under the Government's rules for the resumption of public worship, but should be brief. Thankfully the permission came just in time for Antoine Bamber's funeral on Wednesday. Numbers are still limited to 30, with family and people from the same household taking priority.

Baptism: Baptisms are now allowed too, but confined to just family members. Those families who had arranged dates but have had to postpone due to the Covid 19 are welcome to get in touch with Fr Alf to re-arrange.

Parish Centenary Co-ordinator: Mary Bird has very kindly agreed to be the co-ordinator of any memorabilia people might like to contribute to St Wulstan's centenary celebrations in 2024. If you have any photos, articles, anecdotes or things of interest, even curiosity, to share, then contact Mary on 01253 770564. All photos will be scanned and returned to their owners.

The Pantry: As mentioned before, the handover of The Pantry is soon coming up, and not too soon after that, we hope to be open for business. In the meantime, although the numbers of clients receiving delivered food parcels is falling as people go back to work, the same is true for volunteer drivers, so we could really do with a few more drivers, for the foreseeable future, until things settle down.

Covid 19: As the new Covid regulations regarding face coverings come into force, there is a useful guide to the changes on Fylde and Wyre CCG website

Diocesan Safeguarding Office: Please note that the Diocesan Safeguarding Office has relocated from Preston to Lancaster. The new contact details are: The Safeguarding Office, The Education Centre, Balmoral Road, Lancaster. LA1 3BT Tel: 01524 841190

Lancashire Volunteer Partnership: Still has opportunities across County to join their team of befrienders. You will be making short calls to support vulnerable members of the community who may be isolated and unable to get out and about. Please contact them if you are interested.

Sunday Mass: We must begin to think about a gradual approach to a return to Sunday Mass. Although the Sunday obligations has been suspended until further notice, and the Bishops have encouraged us to spread out during the week with weekday Masses, for many people Sunday is a special day for attending Mass. Could you please email us (wulstans@gmail.com) if you would like us to re-introduce Sunday Mass, so that we can assess the need and begin to make plans to manage numbers. If more want to attend than we can accommodate at present, face masks will be compulsory and we would change from 2m to 1m social distancing. We will continue to broadcast Sunday Mass at the same time for those who do not feel ready yet to attend in person.

Parish Quiz Night: Following the success of the previous 'Zoom Parish Quiz Nights' we will be holding another one on Wednesday evening next week in two sections. Please join us. Part 1: 7.00-7.45 & Part 2: 7.45-8.30 : Meeting ID: 616 766 9574 ~ Password: 4Pdd7w

Congratulations: To Harry & Dot Lister as they celebrate their Diamond Wedding Anniversary. On this special occasion, Father Alf and all the parishioners of St Wulstan's & St Edmund's send you their prayers and affectionate good wishes.

Postscript from Brian Wood: What a difference a day makes. One day the wind is from the south and we bask in its warmth. Next day from the north and we feel the pinch. How nature copes is marvellous. What must swallows and housemartins now that they have arrived from Africa. Dear Jesus, let me not blow hot and cold in my prayer life.
