

Repeats

On the Beach: On Tram Sunday, the Jags will be playing in front of the beach huts, on the corner of the Prom nearest the old pier, between 2-4pm, (weather permitting!). Hopefully, it will be as enjoyable a parish event as the last time, although it will be open to the general public too. We will have a bucket available, and any donations thrown in will go to the Fleetwood hospital project. If anyone would like to help with tea and coffee please let Kim or Jackie know.

Walking Faith! For Catholics in their 20s to 40s, 20th -27th July. The Augustinian Sisters at Boarbank Hall, Grange over Sands are taking the theme of pilgrimage, and planning walks around various local shrines and churches, with talks on related aspects of the faith. Most days will include a longish walk. We will be visiting places like Furness Abbey, the Diocesan Shrine at Ladyewell, Hornby, home of Fr John Lingard, Langdale in the Lake District, and Dodding Green. Talks will be on related themes such as the meaning of pilgrimage, the Cistercians and Augustinians, and Laudato Si'. There will also be the opportunity to join in Mass and the daily prayer of our Community of Augustinian Sisters.

Thank you: You may remember being asked for prayers on behalf of an 18 month baby called Evie Nolan who was seriously ill needing a new heart valve. We have had a lovely note of thanks from her auntie Kathryn Jones and Evie's mum Kirsty which goes as follows

To everyone in the Parish we would like to thank you for all your kind thoughts and prayers for Evie. It has been a truly emotional and challenging time and knowing that Evie has been in all your prayers has been comforting and has helped us through this journey. Evie truly has a guardian angel and to be here with us is a miracle. We have a long recovery ahead of us and the future holds more heart operations. Evie is a super brave little girl. To everyone in the Parish, thank you, Kirsty and Kathryn and family x 3 photos of Evie are at the back of church for people to see what a great recovery she has made so far. Never doubt the power of prayer.

SHWAP For Welcome Project: Thank you to all who helped and "shwapped" last Saturday. £97.00 was raised to help the Syrian Refugee family we are sponsoring. Considering each item was on sale for just £1.00 that is a great total. The clothes left over have been sent to charity.

Cemetery Mass: Thanks to those who prayed for fine weather last Saturday. 55 people attended and all went well.

Health Rides: 15 adult bikes and helmets have been provided for free health rides to help people build their confidence and improve health & fitness. Children under 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Rides will be cycled at an easy, relaxed pace and last for approximately 1 hour, including breaks. You can bring your own bike and helmet. The scheme will run every week until the end of September.

Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies: The CCRS course is offered for catechists, teachers and others who may be interested in deepening their knowledge of the Catholic faith. The course allows for flexibility of study time to suit people's busy lifestyles. The first online CCRS module is an introduction to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The CCRS is generally regarded by the governing bodies of primary schools as an essential qualification for those seeking appointment in a Catholic school and for all those aspiring to leadership posts. Catechism and parish readers have found the modules on sacraments and scripture particularly useful. We are confident that they and perhaps other members of your parish will find the Introduction to Catechism of the Catholic Church both exciting and inspiring. An application form is enclosed in each booklet and a quick return should ensure a place on the course. Please contact us if you have any queries at The Education Centre, Balmoral Road, Lancaster LA1 3BT, Telephone 01524 841190, www.lancaster-diocese-education.org.uk.

Congratulations: To Olivia Garrett and Josh Sharrock who are to be married this Friday 26th July in St Wulstan's at 1pm. We ask God to bless them in their new life together as man and wife.
